- b. Neither registration of your company nor placement of an Order with Edge authorises you to utilise the trade marks.
- c. You must obtain written approval (either by e-mail or facsimile) from Edge on each occasion you propose to use any or all of the trade marks in any promotional or marketing material that will be released to consumers, team members, clients or other third parties.

17) Disclaimers and Limitations of Liability

- a. Where you acquire goods and/or services under these Order Terms and Conditions as a consumer, Edge's goods and/or services come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You may be entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You may also be entitled to have any goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality or the services supplied again if the services are not supplied with due care and skill and are not reasonably fit for the specified purpose.
- b. Subject to clause 17)a, except to the extent required by law, neither Edge nor their affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents, service providers, other contractors, successors or assigns will be liable for any losses, damages, liabilities, claims or exposures (including legal costs and defence or settlement costs) whatsoever, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or otherwise, arising out of, or in any way related to, the supply of Gift Cards or other services contemplated by these Order Terms and Conditions. This limitation applies to all direct, indirect, consequential, special, punitive or other losses, damages, liabilities, claims or expenses you or others may suffer, including for loss of profits, business interruption or loss or corruption of data or information.
- c. Where the consumer guarantees under the Australian Consumer Law apply to the goods or services, and the Australian Consumer Law prohibits Edge from excluding the application of, or its liability under, the consumer guarantees, Edge's liability will be limited for a breach of a consumer guarantee to one or more of the following:
  - 1) If the breach relates to goods:
    - i. the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
    - ii. the repair of such goods;
    - iii. The payment of the cost of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods; or
  - 2) If the breach relates to services:
    - i. the supplying of the goods or services again;
    - ii. the payment of the cost of having the goods or services supplied again.
